- Day 02 Morning guided sightseeing tour of Budapest. Beneath Budapest's exterior lie layers of history from Roman ruins and medieval castles to the Turkish Baths built during the Ottoman occupation. Afternoon free on your own
- Day 03 Meet your guide and driver at the lobby for a half-day private excursion to Szentendre. Often referred to as the "Artists Village", discover this artistic town on a tour of the Danube Bend from Budapest.
Stop at the main square, Fő Tér, the alleyways around it are lined with art galleries, museums and shops. Just off the square, the 18th-century Greek Orthodox Blagovestenska Church has elaborate decor and an ornate partition screen. Another must-stop is the Castle Hill, this area was originally the site of a fortress from the Middle Ages but has since been destroyed.
